Guidelines for Use

The library subscribes to the tenets of the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights (attached), which states in part, "Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use".

The library does not discriminate in making its premises available based on age, education, race, ethnicity, language, religion, gender, sexual orientation, income, political affiliation, physical limitations, geographic barriers, or any other criteria that may be a source of discrimination.

Any group utilizing the facilities for any purpose shall comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), which requires that a meeting or materials at a meeting be provided in an accessible format in response to a request by any person.

Use of library meeting rooms does not imply endorsement, support or co-sponsorship by the Patrick Heath Public Library of the activities that take place or of the beliefs of the group using the rooms.

Neither the name nor address of the library may be used as the official address or headquarters of an organization.

In publicity materials, the library cannot be listed as the sponsoring organization, but only as the "location site." All publicity, including on social media, about the program must state that the meeting is not sponsored by the library. The library will not post announcements of meetings.

The library reserves the right to limit or prohibit uses that represent a threat to the health or safety of library users, or the orderly use of the library.

Permission to use the facilities will be denied to any organization and/or meeting

- Whose purpose is illegal;
- Whose conduct would interfere with the proper functioning of the library;
- Whose activity does not have adult sponsorship

If, on the advice of the Chief of Police or his designee, the Library Director or Library Advisory Board determines that the safety of library staff, patrons or members of the public may be threatened, based on experience of the group or speaker at this library or at other occasions where the group has held a meeting that has been disruptive or had potential for violence, the following shall be required: the individual or group reserving the facilities shall be required to pay in advance by cashier's check the reasonably estimated cost of any special security measures needed to be taken for the meeting; and the individual or group reserving the meeting room shall post a bond or policy of insurance approved by the City Attorney in the amount of $1,000,000.00 to indemnify the City of Boerne and the Patrick Heath Public Library for personal injury, death, or damage to property occurring at the meeting.

The library should be notified immediately whenever a scheduled meeting is canceled.

Use of meeting rooms on days the library is not open is not permitted.

Should the rooms be needed for a library sponsored program or event, the library has the option of canceling or rescheduling an organization's meeting date. The library will attempt to provide at least one-week notice before canceling any reservation, but no group is exempt from this policy and no meeting space is guaranteed. The library is not required to provide an alternate meeting space for any organization.

Groups that use the rooms at no charge must hold open meetings. Groups meeting on Library Premises¹ may find that nonmembers enter their meetings. Such persons may be informed of the nature of the meeting but may not be excluded if they wish to remain.

Except for library sponsored programs or fundraising events to benefit the library or for-profit entities paying for use of the facilities, groups are not permitted to charge registration fees or to require the purchase of an item as a condition of attending a meeting. Membership dues and voluntary incidental donations, such as coffee money, may be collected, but collection of these fees shall not be a requirement for attendance at any meeting held at the library.

Messages cannot be relayed to people attending meetings, except in emergencies.

Smoking (except where designated), use of alcohol, candles, incense or other incendiary devices is prohibited on Library Premises.

Users are responsible for leaving the rooms in a neat and orderly condition, and for returning tables and chairs to storage closets. Failure to do so may result in the denial of future requests and/or withholding all or part of damage deposit.

Users may not move tables and chairs into other rooms or from other rooms.

Individuals may be asked to leave if they disturb others or engage in destructive behavior.

Food and non-alcoholic beverages may be served in the community room. Food preparation is limited to warming only, and not for cooking. Caterers must be allowed time for set-up and clean-up when the original booking is made. Food and non-alcoholic beverages may be served in the conference room, but there are no appliances for warming or cooling.

Non-alcoholic beverages with secure tops and snacks are permitted in study rooms.

Rooms shall remain unlocked during use.

Rooms must be vacated at the agreed-upon time.

The following uses are expressly prohibited in library facilities: buying, selling, advertising, or trading products or services (other than education services or a paid tutor) for cash or other consideration (except in support of the library).

All trash must be placed in trash cans. Groups using the community room kitchen for serving a meal should remove trash to the dumpster located on the south side of the library.

The use of confetti, rice, glitter, or any decoration designed to be thrown on the grounds, tabletops or floors may not be used. The library may withhold all or part of damage deposit for any group doing so.

The library can furnish some AV equipment as specified and upon request. Groups are welcome to use their own equipment. Please ensure that your equipment and cables are compatible with library equipment prior to the event.

Library staff is not available to assist with meetings, set up for meetings, clean up after meetings, or repair, operate or troubleshoot equipment. However, staff will demonstrate how to use library AV equipment at an appointed time prior to the meeting. All appointments made with staff for instructions on use of library AV equipment should take place no later than five (5) business days prior to the meeting. Failure to complete training may result in the denial of future requests.

Displays may not be affixed directly to the walls of the facilities without prior consent. Fixtures may not be removed from the walls.

Windows in rooms may not be covered at any time; however, the shades on the windows can be used.

The library will not provide storage or work space for any organization.

Exceptions

At the discretion of the Library Director, exceptions may be made for certain events.

Appeals

If an organization is denied the use of the meeting room by the Director's office, the organization may appeal to the Library Advisory Board at the next regularly scheduled monthly meeting. The library board shall issue a decision in writing to the complaining person or representative within ten (10) business days. If the organization is not satisfied with the decision of the Library Advisory Board, they may elect to pursue the matter with Boerne City Council, whose authority is final.

Disclaimer

For and in consideration of the use of library facilities, any person or group using same hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Patrick Heath Public Library and the City of Boerne from any and all actions, suits, relating to its use of such rooms and facilities. Further, such person or group agrees to reimburse the City of Boerne for any and all costs for repair of any and all damage as may be caused directly or indirectly to the facilities by such use thereof. If any organization refuses to pay for the damage, the matter will be referred to the City Attorney for legal action.

Library Bill of Rights (Appendix 1)

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

I. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.

II. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.

III. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.

IV. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.

V. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.

VI. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

Adopted June 19, 1939, by the ALA Council; amended October 14, 1944; June 18, 1948; February 2, 1961; June 27, 1967; January 23, 1980; inclusion of "age" reaffirmed January 23, 1996.

A history of the Library Bill of Rights is found in the latest edition of the Intellectual Freedom Manual.

Although the Articles of the Library Bill of Rights are unambiguous statements of basic principles that should govern the service of all libraries, questions do arise concerning application of these principles to specific library practices. See the documents designated by the Intellectual Freedom Committee as Interpretations of the Library Bill of Rights.
